DELRAY MEDICAL CENTER WELCOMES FIVE NEW DOCTORS TO ITS TALENTED MEDICAL STAFF

Matthew D'Alessio, M.D., William Nutovits, M.D., David Mandelblum, M.D., George Macia, M.D.; and Brian Coleman, M.D. join Delray Medical Center staff

Delray Beach, Fla.—(February 2011)- Delray Medical Center is proud to announce that Matthew D'Alessio, M.D., William Nutovits, M.D., David Mandelblum, M.D., George Macia, M.D. and Brian Coleman, M.D. have joined the hospital's medical staff. Together, they bring medical expertise in specialties such as internal medicine, orthopedic surgery and surgical oncology.

“Delray Medical Center takes pride in its ability to recruit a talented medical team, and each of these physicians- with his own medical specialty- will help our hospital work towards its mission to provide high quality health care services to each patient,” said Mark Bryan, chief executive officer of Delray Medical Center.

Dr. D'Alessio is a board certified Surgical Oncologist. He earned his Bachelors of Science degree from Cornell University and his M.D. from the University of Florida. Dr. D'Alessio completed his residency at the Boston University Medical Center and did his fellowship at the University of South Florida College of Medicine in Minimally Invasive and Advanced GI Surgery. He also did a fellowship at the University of Pittsburgh Medical Center for SSO Surgical Oncology.

Dr. Nutovis is an Internal Medicine physician. He earned his Bachelors of Science degree in biology at UCLA and his M.D. at the Medical School at Sackler School of Medicine at Tel Aviv University in Israel. Dr. Nutovis completed his residency in Internal Medicine at Long Island Jewish Hospital in Hyde Park, New York. For the past 15 years he has been practicing medicine in the South Florida area.

Dr. Mandelblum is an Internal Medicine physician. He earned his undergraduate degree at the Universidad Autonoma de Guadalajara in Mexico and earned his M.D. at Universidad De Los Andes in Merida, Venezuela. Dr. Mandelblum completed his internship at the Institute of Clinics and Urology Tamanaco and Rural Services in Caracas, Venezuela. He finished his residency at the Albert Einstein College of Medicine at the Long Island Jewish Medical Center.

Dr. Macia is an Internal Medicine physician. He earned his undergraduate degree at the University of Texas at Arlington and received his Masters degree from East Texas University before earning his M.D. at Escuela Autonoma de Ciencias Medica in San Jose, Costa Rica.

Dr. Coleman is a board certified Orthopedic Surgeon. He earned his Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Dayton and received his M.D. from the Indiana University School of Medicine in Indianapolis. Dr. Coleman completed two residencies, one at Washington Hospital Center for General Surgery, and one at Howard University Hospital for Orthopedic Surgery. He is currently licensed to practice medicine in both Indiana and Florida.

ABOUT DELRAY MEDICAL CENTER

For more than 25 years, Delray Medical Center, a 493-bed acute care hospital, has served the communities of South Palm Beach County. As both a community hospital and Level II Trauma Center located on a 42-acre medical plaza, Delray Medical Center has the ability to offer several specialized services including Cardiac Care, Orthopedics, Rehabilitation, Neurosciences, Emergency/Trauma Care, Behavioral Health, and more.

For the past five years, Delray Medical Center has been named one of America's 50 Best Hospitals by HealthGrades, a leading independent healthcare ratings organization. Delray Medical Center is one of only 269 hospitals ranked in the top 5% in the nation for patient outcomes according to HealthGrades, achieving the HealthGrades Distinguished Hospital for Clinical Excellence Award™. Delray Medical Center was one of just 13 hospitals in South Florida- and one of five in Palm Beach County- that received this recognition for its clinical performance.

Several specialized services lines have also earned high achievements. Delray Medical Center's designation as a Comprehensive Stroke Center by the Florida Agency for Health Care Administration (AHCA) confirms that the hospital's care programs follow national standards and guidelines that can significantly improve the outcomes for stroke patients. This designation followed Delray Medical Center's accreditation by the Joint Commission as a Primary Stroke Center.

For its orthopedics, Delray Medical Center is a Blue Distinction Center for Spine Surgery and Knee and Hip Replacement by Blue Cross and Blue Shield. Delray Medical Center's cardiovascular care has also been the recipient of several awards. The hospital was featured in a special advertisement in the "America's Best Hospitals" 2010 issue of US News & World Report to commemorate their receipt of the Get With the Guidelines Coronary Artery Disease GOLD Award, GOLD Heart Failure Award, and GOLD Plus Stroke Award. In addition, Delray Medical Center was recently named one of America's "Top 50 Cardiovascular Hospitals" by a Thomson Reuters. Selected from more than 1,000 U.S. hospitals, Delray Medical Center was chosen based on its record of providing high-quality and effective cardiovascular care.

Delray Medical Center is actively involved in community outreach, sponsoring many events, community lectures and fundraisers. The hospital is also a smoke free campus. For more information or a physician referral, please call 1-800-897-9789 or visit the website at www.delraymedicalctr.com
