DELRAY MEDICAL CENTER CELEBRATES FIRST QUARTER DAISY AWARD NOMINEES AND WINNER

DAISY award recognizes extraordinary nurses

DELRAY BEACH, Fla. – May 2011- To recognize nurses that provide extraordinary nursing care, Delray Medical Center announced its first quarter DAISY award finalists and winner. Four nurses were selected as finalists and one winner was chosen.

Dilcia Burgos, Trauma Intensive Care Unit, Doris Gloss, Heart Hall, Chuck Ciphery, Trauma Intensive Care Unit, were among the top four finalists. Christine Lindblad, in the Medical Intensive Care Unit was named the winner. All of these nurses were recognized for their education, training, skill, judgment and compassionate care, which truly make a difference in the lives of so many people.

For the DAISY Award, numerous hospitals and medical facilities around the country select Award recipients each quarter. Recipients are chosen by their nurse administrators, peers, physicians, and patients. As of July, 2009, over 4,500 nurses have received The DAISY Award.

Since it takes a team to provide great patient care, physicians, nurses, and staff at Delray Medical Center were treated to Cinnabon® cinnamon rolls during the DAISY Award presentation. Delray Medical Center also received a banner to hang in the hospital to celebrate The DAISY Award honors and the nursing profession.

“Delray Medical Center is proud to celebrate our DAISY Award nominees and winner, Eileen Winn,” said Delray Medical Center Chief Nursing Officer, Audrey Gregory. “We always strive to recognize our nurses who take pride in the nursing profession and work very hard to provide quality care to our patients.”

The DAISY award is sponsored by Cinnabon's franchisees and parent company, FOCUS Brands as the Premier Sponsor. It is co-sponsored in several hospitals by families and companies, including the Angels Baseball Foundation; Hill-Rom; Johnson & Johnson's Campaign For Nursing's Future; NovaVine; Sam's Club; UnitedHealthcare; U.S. Airways; Wells Fargo; and Wellington Vineyards.
